MY QUALITIES

I'm a highly ambitious person with a very intuitive mind. I am always looking to educate myself in new areas as i am a firm believer that knowledge is power. I have alot of patience and like to take my time in getting things done to the best of my abilities. I'm a keen musician and songwriter and this quality is essential to making great music that stands out from the monotonous. I'm very Analytical in my thinking and always question everything, if not out loud, at least in my mind. I'm a down to earth person due to my personal experiences in life and i have a passion for self-education and sharing my learnings with those around me.
