LOOK OUT FOR THESE

Definitions

- You will find that each chapter is introduced by a young girl or a boy.
- Each chapter is divided into sections. Read, discuss and understand each section before proceeding to the next.

Source

- Some chapters contain definitions.
- Many chapters contain a portion from a source, clues from which historians write history. Read these carefully, and discuss the questions they contain.

Additional information

- Many of our sources are visual. Each illustration has a story to tell.
- You will also find maps. Look at these and try to locate the places mentioned in the lessons.

Elsewhere

- Many chapters contain boxes with interesting, additional information.
- All chapters end with a section titled Elsewhere. This tells you about something that was happening in another part of the world.

KEYWORDS

- At the end of each chapter, you will find a list of keywords. These are to remind you of important ideas/ themes introduced in the lesson.

SOME IMPORTANT DATES

- You will also find some dates listed at the end of each chapter.

Imagine

- In each chapter there are intext questions and activities that are highlighted. Spend some time discussing these as you go along.

Let's recall

- And there is a small section titled Imagine. This is your chance to go back into the past and figure out what life would have been like.

Let's discuss

- You will also find three kinds of activities listed at the end of each chapter — Let's recall, Let's discuss
