

DAK slams separatists for failing to set up Bait-ul-Maal

IMRAN MUZAFFAR

Srinagar, July 8: A leading federation of medicos Tuesday slammed Kashmir's pro-freedom leadership for its failure to set up institution of Bait-ul-Maal in Kashmir, in the absence of which countless people were living – and dying – a life of utter penury.

“Hazrat Umar Farooq (RA), despite being a Khalifa (Caliph), wore worn-out shoes, was usually clad with patched up garments and used to sleep on bare floor of Masjid,” said Dr Nisar-ul-Hassan, President of Doctors Association Kashmir or DAK, in a statement.

“Our leaders who preach teachings of Islam have a responsibility to create the institution of Bait-ul-Maal. They have to follow and practice wisdom of the holy Quran, life of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W) and the wisdom of Khalifas for creating a successful Bait-ul-Maal.”

The DAK statement comes after Greater Kashmir exclusively reported on absence of Bait-ul-Maal in Kashmir and how destitute were suffering silently.

On Tuesday, the Association called for establishment of Bait-ul-Maal in Kashmir to, what it said, serve the concept of ‘Haqooq-ul-Ibad,’ a fundamental principle of Islam.

The Association also called for institutionalization of the system “in order to introduce Islamic concept of public trusteeship and public ownership by transferring wealth from individuals to a social collective ownership.”

The financial institution of Bait-ul-Maal, according to historical accounts, has existed and grown since the time of Prophet Muhammad (S.A.W). It was an independent economic institution during the time of Hazrat Umar Farooq (RA).

The DAK president added, “We have failed to create the institution so far because our preaching and sermons are contrary to what we practice.”

Pro-freedom leaders, he said, have to set up an example by donating their wealth and property to Bait-ul-Maal and “I am sure the nation will follow.”

Court acquits accused for lack of evidence

DA RASHID

Srinagar, July 8: A local court has acquitted four men accused of committing murder of two persons at Rajbagh here in 2007.

Court of 1st Additional Sessions Judge Srinagar, Subash C Gupta acquitted Bashir Ahmad Mir, Nazir Ahmad Thoker, Manzoor Ahmad Thoker and Zahid Hussain Mir alias Bitta who were booked on the charges of murder of a duo, Abdul Aziz Mir and Mushtaq Ahmad Chopan, whose bodies were recovered from Kursoo Bund in Raj Bagh area of the city in 2007.

Observing that the prosecution has remained unsuccessful to prove the allegations of murder and destroying of evidence against the accused, the court acquitted them of the charges and ordered their release.

“Hence, accused deserve their acquittal for the commission of offence of murder punishable under section 302 RPC and of destroying of evidence relating to same punishable under section 201 of RPC,” the court ruled in the judgement it had reserved after hearing counsel for accused Muhammad Abdullah Pandit and the prosecution.

On April 16, 2007, police had recovered two bodies bundled into two gunny bags from Kursoo Bund in Raj Bagh area and a case (FIR No 25 of 2007) was registered with Police Station Raj Bagh. The bodies were identified to be those of Abdul Aziz Mir of Muran Tangwari, Chandoosa, Baramula district and Mushtaq Ahmad Chopan of Quilmuqam, Bandipora.

Initial police investigation had revealed that Abdul Aziz Mir was running a stationary shop at Boniyar Uri while Mushtaq Ahmad Chopan had failed to do poultry business and used to move in Kupwara to collect the money which retailers owed to him.

During one such business trip, Mush-taq met Zahid Hussain Mir, alias Bitta of Dardpora Lolab, Kupwara, who lured him into transaction business. Mir promised one million Euro notes and a mysterious crystal of great value to him. Mushtaq Ahmad discussed the matter with Abdul Aziz Mir and both agreed to explore this business.

Meanwhile, Zahid entered into a criminal conspiracy with three others, who posed as businessmen. It was decided that Rs 10 lakh would be paid as advance by Aziz and Mushtaq. Both were brought to Rajbagh by Mir, where other accused, who were working as servants and labourers in a Joinery Mill at Rajbagh, were present.

The victims were given some sedative and strangled. Their bodies were bundled into a van and thrown at Kursoo Bund.

The accused were identified as Nazir Ahmad Thoker, his brother Manzoor Ahmad Thoker and Bashir Ahmad Mir. All belongings, including the cell phone of Aziz Mir (SIM No. 9419468541), of the victims were burnt by the culprits.

However, it was with the help of the call details of this SIM number, that police was able to locate the landline number to which the victim had made a call to speak to the accused, so as to find out the exact location where they had to meet. This led to the arrest of the accused.

Dental doctors’ fast unto death enters 3rd day

Srinagar, July 8: Dental Surgeons Associations Jammu and Kashmir (DSA-JK) on Tuesday continued their fast unto death for the fourth consecutive day and dharna for the seventh day at Amphalla Chowk Jammu and Press Enclave here.

ment of separate directorate for dental health in the state.

Hundreds of unemployed dental surgeons gathered and shouted slogans against what they said ill attitude of Government towards the grievances of skilled unemployed youth of the state.

“Not even a single representative from the concerned authority or the Government has come to listen to our grievances,” said president of DSA-JK, adding, they were unable to understand why government was ignoring their genuine demands.

He also censured Government for trying to take credit for proposing and implementing the big schemes of dental and medical health, but ignoring the issues and demands of the intelligentsia, supposed to be given their due job opportunities to run these health and welfare schemes.

Under-transfer BDO disburses Rs 64 lakhs

Office raided, documents missing

Srinagar, July 8: After complaints of irregularities, district authorities have sealed Block Development Office official record in Budgam and are investigating the matter.

Official sources said that under-transfer Block Development Officer Budgam allegedly disbursed Rs 64 lakhs among contractors under MGNREGA on her last day in the office.

“BDO Budgam was transferred to District Commissioner office Baramulla. But on her last day in Budgam office, she in league with four other employees, disbursed Rs 64 lakhs among contractors under MGNREGA scheme,” sources added. Reports said that as word about the ‘irregularities’ flew around, workers and employees staged protest outside DC office Budgam and demanded thorough probe into the matter.

Acting on the directions of DC Budgam, a team of officials headed by Additional Deputy Commissioner Budgam, Ajaz Ahmed Bhat raided the office and found some important documents including cheque books, withdrawals and dispatches missing from the office.

1931 martyrs Mainstream parties have no right to pay tributes: War

Srinagar, July 8: Chairman People’s Political Party (PPP) and Hurriyat (M) leader, Hilal War Tuesday said mainstream parties have no right to observe the day as July 13, 1931 martyrs offered their lives for a great cause.

According to a statement issued here, War said people must follow the program announced by the Hurriyat (M) chairman Mirwaiz Umar Farooq which includes observing complete strike on July 13 and staging a march from Jamia Masjid to martyr’s graveyard at Khawaja Bazar.

“The martyrs of 1931 laid down their lives to banish the despotic and tyrant rule from their nation,” he said, adding, “But the then leadership entered into a sell-out of their blood by giving up their ideology in 1975 through a pact.”
