Important instructions for the people interested in giving charities in Ramazanul-Mubarak to the right person

Ramazanul-Mubarak is the month of blessings of Allah Ta'ala. It is the month of generosity and sympathy. Therefore, in this blessed month, Muslims help the poor, orphans, destitute and religious institutes by distributing charities among them generously. Although the beneficiaries of charities: Sadaqaat are orphans, the needy, the poor and the indigent Muslims in general, however, while distributing charity, priority and precedence will be given to the indigent righteous, pious scholars and the students of Deen serving the cause of Islam, and to those whose service to religion, personal qualities and religious perfection are well-known. Giving priority to such persons and institutes is recommended by the Holy Qur'an and Hadith-Shareef. The religious institutes: Deeni-Madaaris are surviving on the donation of the common Muslims since the Islamic governments and the wealthy kings and Nawaabs of sub-continent, who were spending on such religious institutes, ceased to exist. The advantages of these Deeni-Madaaris (religious institutes) are open and clear as there is no denying that besides keeping alive the real traditions of Islam, the knowledge of the Holy Qur'an, Hadith and Islamic jurisprudence are well established in the present time also by dint of these Deeni-Madaaris.
Among these Madaaris and Makaatib, Raabitah-e-Madaaris-e-Islamiyyah Arabiyyah Jammu & Kashmir, while taking courage, made a list with utmost care on the time of annual exams according to the exam reports submitted by the district level examiners. This list is available in the makeshift office of Raabitah-e-Madaaris situated at Al-Mahmood Children's Home on the opposite side of the Fruit-Mandi road bypass Parimpora Srinagar. Desirous persons can collect the said list from that office and can donate to the perfectly suitable religious institutes: Deeni-Madaaris according to their own discretion. And in this way, it is hoped that money of the Muslim community will be utilized in the right place and by the right person Insha-Allah. The aim of making this kind of arrangement is to discourage such practice of collection in which the general public is being pestered on roads, buses, bus-stands and at hospitals for making donation.
Moreover, the arrangement to scrutinize the representatives: Safeer of such Madaaris that are established outside of the J&K state, could not be put in place here so far, therefore, it was decided that, in case of scrutinizing outside representatives, the responsible persons of local Madaaris should be contacted.
Where all Masjid-committees are making different arrangements for their Masaajid, if such committees also care about the poor, orphans, widows and the deserving persons of their Mahallas and localities, it would pay better and will solve many poverty problems of the Muslim community. There are many such poor persons and orphans who are very shy and modest about asking for financial assistance or alms. We should detect and identify such souls as the Holy Qur'an has provided them a right on the wealth of the Muslim believers.
It is suggested that if the account number of religious institute: Deeni-Madrasah may be sought from the people of the Madrasah, and then the amount of donation will be transferred to the account of that Madrasah, it will save the expenditure on the salaries of the representatives: Safeer, and the same saved amount will also be spent on the poor men and women of the Muslim community. In future, the phone numbers and the account numbers will be added to the compiled list of Deeni-Madaaris for the convenience of the general public Insha-Allah.
