

Ex-Hizb commander sentenced to life

Srinagar, July 10: A former divisional commander of Hizbul Mujahadeen was on Thursday sentenced to life imprisonment in a murder case in Pattan area of north Kashmir's Baramulla district nine years ago.

The district and additional sessions judge Baramulla, Tasleem Arief convicted Maqsood Ahmad Bhat on charges of murdering Dr Reyaz Ahmed Bhat in 2005.

The additional Sessions Judge Baramulla observed that 'this is a case of murder without any enmity.' "There is nothing so uncommon about this crime to deem it as exceptional case in which instead of life imprisonment, death sentence could be awarded. Though the innocent has lost life in the instant case but it does not fall in the category of rarest of rare cases where the death sentence is warranted," the court observed.

"The convict is therefore sentenced to imprisonment for life for the commission of offence u/s 302 RPC and 7/27 I A Act," said the Judge in his order.

According to the prosecution, the accused Maqsood Bhat killed Dr Reyaz Ahmed Bhat of Hanzura Pattan, a PDP Block President, on June 16, 2005. "A case under FIR no. 87/2005 under section 302 of the RPC was registered in police station Pattan".

According to police, Maqsood Ahmad Bhat alias Tariq alias Altaf Sheikh of Parraypora in Mamoosa Pattan was apprehended by the police from Pattan on 15 January in 2007. "Bhat, a Hizb divisional commander, was active in north Kashmir since 1996 and involved in the killing of eleven people including the PDP Block President Dr Reyaz Ahmed Bhat," said the chargesheet. Locals foil kidnapping of sarpanch in Shopian village

Resist warnings by unidentified gunmen

SHOWKAT DAR

Shopian, July 10: Inhabitants of Bohri Halan village here on Wednesday evening foiled attempt of unidentified gunmen to kidnap sarpanch there.

Panic gripped the village when a group of unidentified gunmen barged into the house of Sarpanch, Muzafar Ahmad Hajeem at 10 pm.

"The gunmen tried to abduct the sarpanch, however his family members raised an alarm attracting attention of their neighbours who rushed towards the house. The gunmen took the sarpanch alongwith them, however, the inhabitants including women followed them," witnesses said.

"The gunmen asked them to go back, but they refused. Irked by the refusal the gunmen fired in air, however the inhabitants offered stiff resistance. Sensing trouble, the gunmen released the sarpanch and escaped from the spot," they said.

Locals found the sarpanch unconscious and rushed him to hospital. "Doctors said he has suffered a minor heart attack," they said.

Soon after the incident police reached the spot and carried search operations were carried in the area. Police has registered a case in police station Shopian.
