

HC sets aside appointment order of 2 assistant professors

GK LEGAL CORRESPONDENT

Srinagar, July 25: The Jammu and Kashmir High Court has set aside an order whereby two doctors were appointed as Assistant Professors in the department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (PMR) in SKIMS here.

“We have, therefore, no doubt that in holding that the appointment of private respondents, 8 (Dr Abdul Hamid Rather) and, 9 (Dr Sheikh Javed Ahmed) against the post of Assistant Professor in PMR department in SKIMS, is contrary to rules as the respondents do not possess the requisite qualification as prescribed by the rules to hold such a post,” a division bench of Justice Hasnain Massodi and Justice D S Thakur ruled in its 13 page judgment.

The bench passed the direction on a Public Interest litigation challenging the appointment of Dr Rather and Dr Sheikh as Assistant Professors in the department of PMR in SKIMS on the ground that the duo did not possess the requisite qualification prescribed by MCI for the post.

“We can ill afford to allow such appointments to continue in prestigious institutes including the present one by a faculty who is not qualified. Any such effort to permit continuance of such doctors could negate the efforts of specialized bodies like the Medical Council of India at achieving academic excellence in the medical faculty besides jeopardizing the patient care in the hospitals,” the bench said.

In the PIL it was stated that the official respondents issued an advertisement notice on December 31, 2004 for filling up the posts of Assistant Professor in department of PMR in SKIMS. The two doctors also applied but were not found eligible.

The petitioner submitted that the Apical Selection Committee (APC) in its meeting held in August 2005 recommended the appointment of the two doctors as Senior Residents subject to the condition that they shall obtain diploma in PMR to become eligible. It was decided till the doctors obtain the diploma after they would be sponsored to undergo the two years training, the two posts of Assistant Professor would be reserved for them.

Shab-e-Qadr observed with gaiety

Governor, Omar greet people

MUDASIR YAQOOB

Srinagar, July 25: Shab-e-Qadr, also known as Laylat-ul-Qadr was observed all over Kashmir on Friday night with great religious zeal and gaiety.

People offered night long prayers and recited holy Quran in Masjids and shrines across Kashmir. Shab-e-Qadr, celebrated on the 27th night of Ramadan every year, is the anniversary of two important dates in Islam during Ramadan. The first verses of the Holy Quran were revealed to Prophet Muhammad (SAW) during this night and it is also the anniversary of the night in which Holy Quran was revealed in its entirety.

Thousands of people offered prayers at the historic Jamia Masjid in Old City and Hazratbal shrine.

Similar congregations were held in different mosques across Kashmir.

The night remained abuzz with Islamic ceremonies and prayers. Biggest congregations of nightlong prayers were also held at the shrines of Saeed Yaqoob Sahab (RA) Sonwar, Sayeed Mansoor Sahab (RA), Makhdoom Sahab (RA), Shrine of Gous-ul-Azam Dashtgeer (RA) at Khanyar, Khwaja Naqashband Sahab (RA) and other shrines in the Valley.

The devotees prayed for peace in the state and well being of people. The night is considered the most blessed of all the nights of the year.

Meanwhile, Governor N N Vohra and Chief Minister Omar Abdullah greeted people on the occasion of Shab-e-Qadr.

Governor in his message hoped that this auspicious occasion would strengthen the bonds of communal harmony and brotherhood and be a harbinger of amity, peace, progress and prosperity in the State.

The Chief Minister in his message wished prosperity, development and peace to the State.

Info employees congratulate Zaffar

GK NEWS NETWORK

Srinagar, July 25: The officers and officials of Information Department have congratulated Zaffar Ahmad Bhat, Excise Commissioner for receiving Chief Minister's Gold Medal for his outstanding and meritorious public service.

The award was conferred on him in recognition of his honesty, integrity and meritorious services as a public servant.

The tenure of Zaffar Ahmad as Director Information, the officers and officials said, was a golden period in the history of the Department. During his tenure, Zaffar not only streamlined overall functioning of the department but resolved complicated and long pending issues related to seniority, promotion and cadre management in both the subordinate as well as gazetted services, they added.
