

SL beat rain to win after Herath's six

Galle, Aug 10: Sri Lanka recorded an exciting seven-wicket win over Pakistan in Galle to move 1-0 ahead in the two-Test series.

Pakistan began the final day 78 runs adrift at 4-1 and were all out for 180, spinner Rangana Herath taking 6-48.

Sri Lanka needed 99 to win in 21 overs and Mahela Jayawardene, who will retire from Tests after this series, opened in his final Test innings at Galle.

Jayawardene made 26 and Angelo Mathews was unbeaten on 25 from 13 balls as Sri Lanka won with four overs to spare. As well as the run rate, the Sri Lankans had to contend with a fast approaching storm, and shortly after they clinched victory, a torrential downpour began.

At the start of the final 15 overs, 75 were required and Jayawardene was the second wicket to fall, bowled by a Junaid Khan yorker in the 12th over of the innings, to silence a 5,000-strong crowd who had been hoping he would see the hosts to victory.

Kumar Sangakkara, who made his 10th Test double century on Saturday, departed in the 15th over, top-edging to mid-off for 21, but skipper Mathews hit two sixes in an unbroken partnership of 26 in barely two overs with Kithuruwan Vithanage to win it before the rain came.

The second and final Test begins at the Sinhalese Sports Club in Colombo on Thursday.

Snubbed Razzaq takes up coaching

Karachi, Aug 10: Pakistan allrounder Abdul Razzaq has decided to take up coaching seriously after being constantly snubbed by the national selectors since last year. Razzaq, 34, is presently in England playing league cricket and is also attending a level two coaching course run by the England and Wales Cricket Board.

"Yes I am interested in coaching because I want to pass on my experience to youngsters," Razzaq told PTI over the phone.

"I am doing a level two coaching course because it appears to be a very interesting and challenging profession and I would love to teach youngsters how to become good allrounders and big hitters which are essential requirements of modern day cricket," he said. Razzaq, who played 46 Tests scoring 1946 runs and taking 100 wickets, said he also had every intention to play in the new domestic season in Pakistan starting later this year.

"I have god gifted skills and I don't want to waste them. No matter what the situation I know what I can do even now. My bread and butter is still cricket and I want to show everyone I am still good enough to play for Pakistan." The allrounder last played in two T20 matches against South Africa in October, 2013 in the UAE and was also selected for the return series in South Africa but had to withdraw due to fitness issues. "I am fully fit now and also played in a few matches in the last domestic season. Knowing how things go in Pakistan cricket I have not ruled out another World Cup appearance next year in Australia and New Zealand."
