

Kashmir to get first ever live 3D street painting

GK NEWS NETWORK

Srinagar, Aug 30: Come September and Kashmir will be greeted with the first ever Live 3D street painting at Zabarwan Park, here. The unique art initiative is being promoted in Kashmir by SPACE Communications, Event and Sports Management Company and J&K Tourism.

"This is another new format of tourism that J&K state is visualizing in the field of art," Director Tourism, Talat Parvez said. "We believe that tourism industry should add on tourism products and that has been our mission. Arts tourism focuses on inclusive growth of artisans who can learn further value additions by connecting to artists. We want that Kashmir should be on the global canvas of artists all around the world," he said. This event is supported by Comrade Inn and New York houseboats as hospitality partners.

This journey of 50 days will commence from Kashmir with the unveiling of first 3D street painting and conclude in Kerala. A group of six artists will leave behind their artistic footprints in the form of 3D street paintings at Zabarwan park-Boulevard Srinagar.

"Live 3D Street painting is a great form of art and is quite famous in Europe, Middle East and other countries. We thought to introduce it in Kashmir as it is beneficial for locals and attraction for tourists. Arts Tourism is growing a lot these days and we have decided to focus on this activity in J&K state. The goal is to make our state as one of the finest destinations for new art forms," Dr. Amit Wanchoo, CEO SPACE Communications, said.

The artistic team is represented by Master Street painter, Guinness World Record holder and renowned 3D street artist Limmesh Augustine based in Bahrain. He will be joined by Mexican artist Vero Gonzalez who has multiple Guinness Records and global awards to his credit in this art form. Vero is an eminent 3D artist and a guide and mentor for several budding 3D artists. Completing the artistic pack is Aguilarguardol, who is a Mexican Master Street Painter, 3D Street Artist and Chalk/ Copy Artist. Other members of the group are Jinsi Babu and Samadhan.

Rehmat COO bags Business Wizard 2014 Award

GK NEWS NETWORK

Srinagar, Aug 30: Ashiq Bandy, Chief Operating Officer, Bandy Group of Companies—makers of Rehmat Spices, has been conferred upon Business Wizard of North India 2014 award by the India Today group "for having carved a niche for his company in food industry."

Bandy received the award few days back from Punjab Chief Minister Prakash Singh Badal at a felicitation ceremony held at Chandigarh, the company in a statement said.

"We awarded 26 leading industrialists of north India for doing outstanding work in their field of business and the aim of India Today is to recognize their feat and encourage them. Bandy has done really well in his field and was awarded in recognition of his achievements", Rajesh Malik, a senior India Today official said.

Bandy Impex Pvt Ltd is one of Kashmir's leading manufacturers and exporters of food items, spices and saffron.

Ashiq Bandy said he felt humbled by the award and credited his young workforce for this achievement. He said his company is manufacturing more than 100 different food products that have been received very well in India and outside.

He informed that the company has started operations outside India as well. "I want to send my people (youth) outside so that they can get good exposure of work culture apart from lucrative financial support", he said.
