The Income Tax provisions do not allow any deduction on the contributions made in cash by any person or company to a political party.

Accordingly, the Com-While the recognised mission guidelines say, the political party shall maintain names and address of all such individuals, companies or the audited annual accounts entities making donation to it as certified by the charted excepting petty sums donated accountants and the election by public during rallies.

Further, any amount or expenditure statements with donation received in cash, The unrecognised parties shall file them with the chief the account books deposited within a week of its receipt.

New Delhi, Aug 29: The form to the guidance note provision regarding ceiling for cal parties shall submit to retain a reasonable amount required for day to day functioning and for defraving cash expenses.

The Commission said concerns have been expressed in various quarters that money power was disturbing the level playing field and vitiating purity of elections. Noting that it is desirable for political parties to observe transparency and accountability in respect of funds raised and expenditure incurred both during elections and in other times, the Commission said it is necessary and expedient to provide guidelines for bringing that.

The Commission said it sought suggestions and inputs shall be duly accounted in from all recognised political parties, most of whom supin the party's bank account ported the issue of transparency guidelines. Some others However, the party can had a different view. PTI
